A MIRACLE OF NATURE.

The Wonderful Growth of the Antlers of the Wapiti.

Wapiti antler growth is one of the miracles of nature that we never cease to consider a miracle. About the end of winter—that is in mid-March—the antlers of the year before break off flush with their base an inch or more above the skull. Usually they are found close together, showing that they fell nearly at the same time.

At first the place of each antler is a broad raw spot. In a few days it shows a thick rounded pad or blood gorged skin. This swells rapidly, and in a fortnight the great bulbous fuzzy horn beginning has shot up to a height of several inches. At exactly the right time, place and in just the right direction a bump comes forth to be the foundation of the brow tine. In a few more days the bez tine is projected by the invisible architect. In a month the structure is nearly a foot high and all enveloped in a turgid mass of feverish, throbbing blood vessels—the scaffolding and workmen of this surprising structure. Night and day the work is pushed with astounding speed, and in four months this skyscraper is finished, a wonderful structure indeed, for a score of nature's forces have toiled, a myriad of invisible workmen have done their part, and an edifice that, according to ordinary rules, should have taken a lifetime is here rushed through in a summer and all in absolute silence.

August sees the building done, but it is still cluttered with scaffolding. The supplies of blood at the base are reduced and finally discontinued. The antler is no longer in vital touch with the animal. It begins to die. The sensitiveness leaves each part, the velvet covering soon dies, cracks and peels, and the stag assists the process of clearing off the skin by scraping his horns on the brushwood. September sees him fully armed in his spears of dead bone, strong in body, glorying in his weapons and his strength and ready to battle with all comers.—Ernest Thompson Seton in Scribner's.

HONEY AS A FOOD.

It Is Nourishing and Saves Work For the Digestive Organs.

Honey, which is described as "one of nature's best foods," is the subject of a report by the Ontario department of agriculture. In this it is pointed out that it is only within the past few centuries that sugar has become known and only within the last generation that refined sugars have become so low in price that they may be commonly used in the poorest families. Formerly honey was the principal sweet, and it was highly valued 3,000 years before the first sugar refinery was built. "It would add greatly to the health of the present generation," it is declared, "if honey could be at least partially restored to its former place as a common article of diet."

Excessive use of sugar brings in its train a long list of ills. When sugar is taken into the stomach it cannot be assimilated until first changed by digestion into grape sugar. Only too often the overtaxed stomach fails properly to perform this digestion, and then come sour stomach and various phases of indigestion and dyspepsia. In the laboratory of the hive the honey has been fully prepared by the bees for prompt assimilation without taxing either stomach or the kidneys, so that in eating honey the digestive machinery is saved work and health is maintained.

Moreover, the same report says that "in many cases it will be a real economy to lessen the butter bill by letting honey in part take its place. One pound of honey will go as far as a pound of butter, and if both articles be of the same quality the honey will cost the less. Honey is strongly recommended for children, while for persons of all ages a pleasant and wholesome drink is called 'German honey tea.' This is made by pouring a teacupful of hot water on from one to two teaspoonfuls of honey."

Curious Wedding Customs in Turkey.

The dowry of a Turkish bride is fixed both by law and custom and must not exceed a sum equal to $1.70 in United States currency. On no pretext can this amount be made greater or less, even though the parents be extremely poor or immensely wealthy. The wedding is invariably set for Thursday, the festivities beginning on the previous Monday and lasting four days. The merrymaking is carried on by the men and women separately, and each day is distinguished by a change in ceremonies. On no account will Turks allow spoons, forks, knives or wine on the table when celebrating a wedding.

Herbert Spencer.

Dr. Alfred Russel Wallace told Herbert Spencer's reason for living in a London boarding house with "rather a commonplace set of people—retired Indian officers and others:" "He said that he had purposely chosen such a home in order to avoid the mental excitement of too much interesting conversation, that he suffered greatly from insomnia and that he found that when his evenings were spent in commonplace conversation, learning the news of the day or taking part in a little music, he had a better chance of sleeping."

Daintily Expressed.

The author had been dragged fainting from a crowd of shoppers.

"Almost like my last book," he murmured, recovering his senses.

The listeners, being of delicate perception, knew then that the book had fallen dead from the press.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Men spend their lives in the service of their passions instead of employing their passions in the service of their life.—Steele.

A Little Cold Blooded.

"Speaking of cold blooded methods in business," said a southern merchant, "reminds me of a story they tell about a New York drummer who died suddenly in an Atlanta hotel. The coroner telegraphed to his firm, saying: 'Your representative died here today. I await your instructions.' In a few hours this answer came back: 'Search his pockets for orders. Express his samples to New York. Give the body to a medical college.'"

A Counterirritant.

"What is a counterirritant?" asked Mrs. Smithers.

"A counterirritant," replied Smithers, "is a woman who makes the clerk pull down everything from the shelves for two hours and then buys 4 cents' worth of hairpins."—Cleveland Press.

Economy.

Friend — If your washerwoman charges by the piece, it must be rather expensive. Young Housekeeper—Oh no. She loses so many things that her bills are never high.—New York Weekly.

A King's Ruse.

Alfonso, king of Aragon, was one day examining the different articles in his jeweler's shop in company with many ladies of his court. He had scarcely left the house when the jeweler missed a diamond of great value and ran after him, complaining of the theft. The king, not willing publicly to disgrace any of his attendants, commanded a large basin full of sand to be brought him, into which he directed each person to put in the hand clinched and to draw it out flat. By this means the diamond was left in the sand, unknown by whom.

High Heels.

Sarah Bernhardt, who was interviewed on the subject of high heels, says: "High heels are exquisite for the woman who knows how to wear them. Every one does not know how. A happy medium must be struck. I can see no reason in the world why there should be any danger from wearing high heels. The great argument in their favor is that they are prettier than low ones."

PURE BLOOD IS VITAL

Not everyone realizes the vital necessity of keeping the blood pure at all times. Impure blood not only causes various derangements and inability to perform one's work well, but gives a ready welcome to all germs of disease with which it comes in contact. It is the rankest extravagance to allow the human blood to remain in an impure or impoverished condition. "Our Standard Remedy" is the safest, purest and best blood purifier on the market to-day. It is a new remedy, a purely vegetable preparation composed of roots, barks and herbs, and contains no calomel or other injurious or metallic drug. 204 doses for $1, with a written guarantee that your money will be refunded if you are not cured of all troubles caused directly or indirectly by bad blood. You can purchase this wonderful new remedy at Clewe's. John McNeil, sole agent for Sonoma County, Ohm's Sulphur Springs, Sonoma.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1906.

MISS MINNIE COULTER

Miss Minnie Coulter, County Supt. of Schools, desires a reelection to the office she has filled for the past eight years. Miss Coulter has demonstrated the fact that she has the knowledge and ability to perform the duties of the position in a highly creditable manner.

Believing that her work has been satisfactory to the people in general, she will ask the Democratic County Convention to renominate her for the office.

Rev. Rowe Appreciated

At a meeting of the officers and members of the M. E. church in this city, held last Sunday morning, it was decided to petition the Conference which meets next month in Pacific Grove, through the presiding elder, to return Rev. Rowe to this pastorate.

He has been in charge of the M. E. church here for two years last past, during which time the church has grown and prospered and the minister and his estimable wife has grown in the esteem and admiration of not only the members of the church, but all classes of people who respect truth and righteousness.

The request to the conference was unanimous and it is sincerely hoped that that body will grant it and send Rev. Rowe and Mrs. Rowe back to us for another year and keep on doing it for years to come.

Business Change

Wm. Rambo has sold out his horse-shoeing department to J. H. Murray of San Francisco, who has already taken possession and gone to work.

Mr. Rambo will continue in the same shop and do general blacksmithing and wagon work.

Mr. Murray enjoys the reputation of being one of the most skillful horse-shoer in San Francisco, having for years been foreman in Eddie Graney's famous shop in that city. He comes highly recommended as a reliable workman who has thoroughly mastered his trade and will no doubt get a liberal share of patronage. Read his new ad in this issue.

Church-Marcucci Wedding

W. T. Church and Miss Jennie Marcucci of Embarcadero, were married at the home of the brides parents on Wednesday, Rev. Father Leahy of St. Francis' Church officiating.

After the ceremony, an elaborate wedding feast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Church departed on the afternoon train for a brief honeymoon. The young couple will reside in Shellville.

Their many friends in the valley wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The Campbell Place Sold

Through the agency of the Sonoma Realty Co., the Geo. Campbell place near the "Old Cooper Bridge" has been sold to Mr. Jerome J. Hickey, a retired policeman of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickey and their interesting family will soon take up their residence on their new purchase, which is one of the finest places in Sonoma valley. They are a welcome addition to Sonoma's growing population.

Another New Enterprise

An experienced and well-to-do wagon maker has been in Sonoma for a few days looking for a site on which to build a large carriage and wagon factory.

It is sincerely hoped that those owning available sites will be willing to lease or sell at a reasonable figure and thus lend encouragement to a very welcome industry.

FRANK M. COLLINS

Frank M. Collins of Petaluma was in Sonoma Wednesday. Mr. Collins who has for nearly a score of years been City Marshal of Petaluma, is candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Sonoma Co., subject to the approval of the Republican convention, and was here to interview the delegates of this section. His candidacy is being very favorably received by members of the G. O. P. and he will add strength to the ticket if nominated. He is well fitted to fill this office as in his eighteen years as collector of taxes in Petaluma, that city has not had one delinquent tax sale. Although a life long Republican, who has always been found ready to help his party, this is only the second time he has ever asked the county organization for recognition of his labors. Before it was refused, and the office lost to the party. This time his request will probably be granted. If a Republican is to fill this office there is no one that we would rather see selected than Marshal Frank M. Collins of Petaluma.

FINE TIME AT AGUA CALIENTE

About five hundred visitors from Vallejo enjoyed a royal good time at Agua Caliente last Sunday. A special train brought them to the Springs in the morning returning late in the afternoon.

Among the guests were the Mayor and Councilmen of the City of Vallejo and many officials of the other departments in the naval city.

About 2 o'clock in the afternoon the dry grass back of "The Lark" caught fire and threatened serious damage. Luckily N. Kehoe, the veteran fireman of the metropolis was present and quickly organized a number of the guests into a working fire company soon had the flames subdued. His presence of mind prevented what might have been a disastrous conflagration.

BATTO & SONS

Probably the busiest place in Sonoma at present is at Batto & Sons' fruit drying plant near Vineburg. About 50 hands are employed at present handling about 100 tons of fruit per week. In addition two or three car loads of fresh fruit are being shipped each week.

The force are now working on peaches, Bartlett pears and prunes. By square dealings and furnishing reliable goods at right prices, Batto & Sons have built up an immense business in fresh and dried fruit, hay, grain, stock-food and provisions in the past few years.

Republican Committee

Chairman Austin of the Republican County Central Committee announces the following as members of the executive committee of the party:

First supervisorial district—R. McDonnell and David R Risk.

Second district—O. V. Hicks and Lyman Green.

Third district—Victor Piezzi and Grant Laughlin.

Fourth district—R. K. Truitt and G. B. Baer.

Fifth district—D. B. Peugh and I. J. Button.

At large—A. B. Lemmon, Major C. E. Haven, Dr. Bogle, E. De Bernardi and W. A. Nichols.

A GOOD RACE

One of the fastest races that ever took place on the Sonoma track was witnessed by a large crowd last Sunday afternoon. Joe Mac, driven by Joseph F. Ryan, won the race over Dynamite, driven by John Lawler Jr. of Petaluma. Both horses are owned by Mr. Schottler of the metropolis Time:—2:25, 2:21½ and 2:22. The stake was an oyster dinner the date of which has not been set

G. W. REED, JR.

Station Agent Reed wears a wreath of smiles these days and the cause may be surmised by the above heading. Yesterday afternoon a fine bouncing boy arrived to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reed on Napa street.

Left The Perpendicular

A jolly crowd of pleasure seekers, enroute from the Glen Ellen ball, last Saturday evening, enjoyed (?) a thrilling and novel experience. The bus in which they were riding ran off the grade and turned over. Luckily no one was hurt and the journey was resumed as soon as the rig could be righted.

Experience Social

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church of this city, will give an "Experience Social" at the home of Mrs. Clewe, on Friday, September 7th. An enjoyable time is promised to all who attend. The general public is invited.

THEY OBJECT

As we were closing the forms preparing to go to press to day, a number of property owners desired to enter a protest against the granting of a saloon licence near the El Verano bridge, opposite the Perkin's place.

The residents in that section are up in arms against the granting of the licence, claiming that there are enough saloons in the neighborhood already.

The matter will come before the board of supervisors the first Monday in September when strenuous opposition to the license will be made. Application for the license was made last Monday to the Board which postponed action until the next meeting.

Board of Supervisors

The board of supervisors have rejected all the bids presented at the last meeting for the demolition of the old court house. A resolution for this was passed at the meeting on Monday.

At Monday's meeting bids were opened for the construction of the Gualala bridge, but action on the same went over until Tuesday.

Several of the architects who have submitted plans and specifications for the new court house were present at the meeting, but no action was taken pending further consideration.

The bills of Road Commissioner Button were allowed as follows: Bodega road district, $118.19; Ocean, $167.50; Redwood, $39 19; Salt Point, $110.

A. Baccala's petition for a retail liquor license went over to the next regular meeting.

SONOMA COUNTY NEWS

John Jordan, a resident of Petaluma, was drowned in the river at that place Sunday night.

Ferdinand Vallette, who conducted a French bakery on Main street at Petaluma, accidentally shot himself Sunday afternoon. The unfortunate man expired that evening.

Grace Bros., new creamery at the county seat is now in full operation and considerable butter is being made. The plant is fitted out with all the latest machinery and utensils.

The fruit crop is now well open in this county, and the harvest is all that could be expected in most cases. The driers are a busy lot and the canners that will run their plants this season are all doing great work. Hops will be ready for picking in a short while, and the grape harvest promises to be way up, with high prices that show a profit to the growers.

At the big cannery in Santa Rosa more help is badly needed, and women and girls, to the number of four or five hundred can get employment. Peaches, pears and blackberries are being handled in large quantities, and the question of more help is a big problem.

Mr. Wilson of the Hawaiian lumber company and a lumber man from Pittsburgh will leave in a few weeks for the Hawaiian Islands where they will establish a camp and prepare logs for shipment to Petaluma to be made into wood at the mills which the company intends to establish at that place. The tree lumber is made from what is called Koa. It is not a true mahogany, but makes a most beautiful finishing wood.

Miss Adler Entertains

Miss Irma Adler, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. W. Adler, delightfully entertained about thirty friends at the Adler home Monday afternoon, the occasion being her first birthday. Delicious refreshments were served and a royal good time was heartily enjoyed by those present.

Earthquake at Valparaiso

Alarming reports come by cable from Valparaiso, the largest and richest city on the west coast of South America, that the city has been destroyed by earthquake and fire.

The reports are to the effect that there were two severe shocks, the second more severe than the first, and as a result of both, the entire city is in ruins. Fire broke out immediately and completed the work of desolation. The shocks came at about 8 o'clock on the evening of August 16. Many lives are reported lost.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80 PER PAIR

Regular Price $8.50 per pair. To Introduce We Will Sell You a Sample Pair for Only $4.80 (CASH WITH ORDER $4.65)

NAILS, TACKS OR GLASS WON'T LET OUT THE AIR

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS. Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire.

Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

Notice the thick rubber tread "A" and puncture strips "B" and "D," also rim strip "C" to prevent rim cutting. This tire will outlast any other make—SOFT, ELASTIC and EASY RIDING.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape. We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES, built-up-wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.

A Touching Easter Custom.

A touching Easter custom prevails on the Isles of Shoals, off the New England coast, which are peopled almost exclusively by fisher folks.

Easter morn recalls to these the dead the sea has taken for its own during the year, and, as the simple worshipers row from isle to isle to their rude chapel on Star island, bunches of flowers, brought from the mainland, are dropped tenderly into the deep. The warm weather services are held out on the rocky beach of the islands, and the picture presented by the simple fisher worshipers, listening bareheaded to their pastor from natural seats on the wide, flat rocks, is one that instinctively recalls that other Eastertide off on the shores of Galilee, when the disciples preached another resurrection's dawn to those who had seen the Nazarene ascend from off the cross on Calvary.—Boston Herald.

Corn Growing Interests.

The corn school was one of the most popular features of the Illinois farmers' institute meeting and drew a big crowd. Professor Hume of the Illinois college was the instructor, and L. B Close of Indiana judged the exhibits "More good bushels per acre," says Professor Hume, "is the object of the study of corn." The discussion following Professor Hume's address pointed toward a prevailing opinion among the farmers present that seed corn this year is low in vitality. Thorough testing before planting was urged by Professor Hume. An unusually fine corn exhibit was brought out by the prizes offered for the best corn to go as Illinois' representation at the St. Louis fair. The first prize went to the Messrs. Sutton for white corn of the variety Farmer's Interest, which will head the Illinois list at St. Louis.

Stockmen Make Their Wants Known

At Des Moines 300 members of the Iowa Meat Producers' association appeared before the legislature with a petition in favor of the Delano stock shipping bill. At the hearing given by the house committee on railroads of testimony against the bill the railroad men advanced the arguments that high speed of stock trains tends to danger and that fast traffic had so increased the cost of moving stock that the reduction of speed, with consequent reduction of cost, had become a measure of necessary self defense. The Delano bill establishes a minimum speed of twenty miles an hour for stock trains and obliges the railroad companies to issue return tickets to cattle shippers. In the discussion before the committee the stockmen not only demanded the passage of this bill, but asked that a meat packing plant be established at the State Agricultural college to teach young men the trade. The annual meeting of the shippers' association, held the same day, ratified these demands.

A Remarkable Bridge.

Among the many odd nooks and corners and crannies of the auld Emerald Isle is Carrick-a-rede, on the Great Northern railroad of Ireland. It is an isolated rock, separated from the mainland by a chasm sixty feet wide and more than eighty feet deep, and it is at this place that the salmon are intercepted in their retreat to the rivers. A rude bridge of ropes is thrown across which remains during the fishing season, and this bridge, which is protected by a single rope rail, swings about in the most uncomfortable manner, often rendering it a dangerous feat in stormy weather save to the natives, who cross it with the utmost indifference. The name is derived from "Carrig-a-rain-hach" (the rock in the road) on account of the intercepting of the salmon. Near by on the west side of the island is a cavern in which have been found the bones of horse, ox, deer, sheep, goat, badger, otter, water rat and of several kinds of birds.

Two Odd Volumes.

The book done by a French monk who instead of writing the words cut the letters from the vellum page and formed a sort of stencil has its opposite in a Swedish translation of the four gospels, which was done in gold and silver leaf. The initial letters are cut from thin sheets of beaten gold done in delicate tracery, while the body of the text is of heavy silver. The foil is cemented to the parchment page with an adhesive which in spite of the undoubted antiquity of the book has not lost its powers. Most freak books were evidently done to perpetuate the name of the ingenious owner, but this carries absolutely no information as to its maker.

A more modern freak is the output of a Lyons silk weaving firm and is a prayer book in which the letters are woven into the silk. But one copy was made of the book, and this is in the government library at Paris.

Moral Suasion and a Strap.

"She seems to have abandoned her moral suasion ideas relative to the training of children."

"She has?"

"How did it happen?"

"Well, I was largely instrumental in bringing about the change. You see, she has no children of her own, and I grew weary of her constant preaching and theorizing, so I loaned her our Willie."

"Loaned her your boy?"

"Precisely. She was to have him a week on her solemn promise to confine herself entirely to moral suasion."

"Did she keep her promise?"

"She did, but at the expiration of the week she came to me with tears in her eyes and pleaded for permission to whale him just once."—New York Mail and Express.

For the Use of the Right Hand.

The buttons on coats, etc., are placed on the right side and the shed of the hair in boys to the left evidently to suit manipulation by the right hand. The great philosopher Newton records that at first he confined his astronomical observations to his right eye, but afterward he managed to train his left. But there are persons who could not do this owing to the unequal strength of their eyes.—Chambers' Journal.

Entertained Her.

"Did Miss Gaddy entertain your proposal?" asked the close friend.

"No," was the sad answer. "It seemed to work just the other way."—[illegible]

Chestnut Stuffing.

Chestnut stuffing is made of a quart of large French chestnuts. Put them in hot water and boil until the skins are softened, then drain off the water and remove the skins. Replace the blanched nuts in water and boil until soft. Take out a few at a time and press them through a colander or a potato press. They mash more easily when hot. Season the mashed chestnuts with a tablespoonful of butter, a teaspoonful of salt and a quarter of a teaspoonful of pepper.
